

Rocky Mountain College and Mount Royal University's Faculty of Continuing Education have signed an agreement to partner together to provide job-ready skill training for RMC's new Diploma in Global Studies. RMC students will be able to take a program at MRU and apply it to their Diploma program. The agreement enables RMC students to use one of these MRU programs: (Click the program name for more information.)

- International Community Development
- Project Management
- Office Computer and Bookkeeping

Rocky Mountain College is proud to partner with Mount Royal University's Faculty of Continuing Education. Rocky Mountain College provides the Biblical, Theological, Spiritual Formation, and Intercultural courses plus the "on the job" practical experience that will equip students in this brand new program to be effective team members of agencies which are bringing justice and the gospel to people around the world.