

Application Information

Description

This award assists student in the CrossTraining or Global Studies programs at Rocky Mountain College with funding for their international practicums Awards are up to $2500 depending on the nature of the practicum and funds available.

Application Requirements

1. Recipients must be enrolled in the CrossTraining program through RMC or a Global Studies program at RMC and be planning to complete their international practicum within the next 12 months.
2. Recommendation from the Intercultural Studies Facilitator.
3. The award will be sent to the appropriate agency in advance of the practicum.
4. The award is to a maximum of 50% of the anticipated expenses or $2500 whichever is less.
5. A budget for the practicum must be submitted including justification for the amounts (e.g., memo from the sending agency outlining housing, living and ministry expenses, airline ticket prices from a website or travel agent, etc.).
6. An outline of the practicum plan including sending agency, location, nature of involvement, dates, etc. must be included.

Submit your application to the Academic office or fax it to: (403) 220-9567.